CONTACT: Dr. Linda Burrs 937-866-7511. DrBurrs@step-up-to-success.org

The lack of engaged and committed employees is costing organizations an estimated $250-350 billion dollars and is a major factor in that 70% of change initiatives fail. Can you afford to have employees who are not committed, not energized, and not internally motivated to accomplish the vision and goals of your organization?

The Success Series© will address the issues most relevant for your organization, while answering the questions organizational leaders often ask themselves:

- ◆ Is this organization as profitable as we want it to be right now?
- ◆ Is retention a problem for us or could it be in the near future?
- ◆ Is our organization successfully managing all of the change we are experiencing?
- ◆ Are our employees working to their maximum potential?
- ◆ Does our organization understand the financial benefits of a diverse workforce?
- ◆ Are we developing inclusive teams?

Step Up to Success©, (www.step-up-to-success.org) is an organization and leadership consultancy that can help your organization accomplish these goals with the Success Series©. These training programs are specifically designed to help organizations overcome barriers to profitability by enhancing:
